TRIBE OF CRUADALACH ANNOUNCES RELEASE OF ITS DEBUT ALBUM CALLED „LEAD - NOT FOLLOW“!

Bohemian folk metal tribe of CRUADALACH stating that its debut album „Lead - Not Follow“ will be out on 4th of November thanks to label Black Bards in Western Europe and also in USA through distribution of Relapse Records. No less we are thrilled by the fact that thanks to licence agreement the album will be released also through Czech label MetalGate in Czech Republic and Slovakia. Moreover, it will come even sooner - the official date of release in Czech Republic and Slovakia will be 28th of October when the album will be for the first time available on Samhainfest 2011 in Brno (28/10, club Favál where we will perform side by side with Percival Schutzenbach from Poland, Italian warriors Krampus and Moravian Clawed Forehead) and day later on Prague gig (29/10, club Exit-Us, same line-up). The entrance for both events is 200,-/8 E and we will baptize our debut album on both gigs too!

“WE DO NOT RESURRECT ANCIENT IDOLS, YET WE DO SING ABOUT ALL THE BATTLES THAT WE, BOTH AS INDIVIDUALS AND AS A BAND, HAD TO UNDERGO, FOR THEY ARE AFTER ALL THAT WHICH FILLS OUR LIVES.”

The releasing of „Lead - Not Follow“ will be supported by Western European tour Black Trolls Over Europe III (12.-20.11.) when we will break the stages side by side with German bands Suidakra, Odroerir a XIV. Dark Centuries, with Irish martyrs Waylander and Dutch Chain of Dogs. The first gig of nine days long tour will be Black Troll Winterfest 2011 with extraordinary strong line-up containing headliners like Immortal, Primordial, Moonsorrow, Týr and Ensiferum.

Debut album „Lead - Not Follow“ was forged in Hacienda of Miloš Dodo Doležal, Czech Republic, during June and July of 2011 and it will contain also two guests - Václav Liška supports some parts with tribal feeling of percussions and Ana Backonja from Croatian-Bulgarian project Terra Balcanica and ex-singer of Stribog on vocals.
